

Driver's License and State-Issued Identification Card Verification in E-Verify

Driver's licenses and state-issued Identification (ID) cards issued by U.S. states and outlying possessions are among the acceptable List B documents for Form I-9, Employment Eligibility Verification.

1. When prompted to select which List B document the employee presented, select "Driver's license or ID card issued by a U.S. state or outlying possession."

Driver's licenses and state-issued ID cards are usually issued by a state department of motor vehicles (or similar agency) and may be issued by a U.S. state or outlying possession (including the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, U.S. Virgin Islands, Guam, American Samoa and the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands).

The screenshot shows the E-Verify Form I-9 interface. At the top, there is a "Citizenship Status" section with four buttons: "A citizen of the United States" (selected), "A noncitizen national of the United States", "A lawful permanent resident", and "An alien authorized to work". Below this is the "Employer or Authorized Representative Review and Verification" section. It asks "What document types are on Jane Doe's Form I-9?" with two buttons: "List A Document" and "List B & C Document" (selected). Underneath, there is a "List B Document" dropdown menu. The dropdown is open, showing a list of options. The first option, "Driver's license or ID card issued by a U.S. state or outlying possession", is highlighted with a red box. Other options include "ID card issued by a U.S. federal, state or local government agency", "School ID card", "Voter registration card", "U.S. military card or draft record", "Military dependent's ID card", "U.S. Coast Guard Merchant Mariner Card", "Driver's license issued by a Canadian government authority", "School record or report card (under age 18)", "Clinic, doctor or hospital record (under age 18)", "Day-care or nursery school record (under age 18)", and "Native American tribal document". At the bottom of the form, there is a "Continue" button.

2. If you select that the employee presented a U.S. driver's license or state-issued ID card, E-Verify will prompt you to select whether the document is a driver's license or a state-issued ID card.

Employer or Authorized Representative Review and Verification

What document types are on Jane Doe's Form I-9?

List B Document

Driver's license or ID card issued by a U.S. state or outlying possession ▼

Are you entering a Driver's License or a State Issued ID Card?

Driver's License

State Issued ID Card

3. After selecting driver's license or state-issued ID card, E-Verify will prompt you to enter the issuing state. If the document has an expiration date, you MUST enter that expiration date. If the document does not have an expiration date, you must check the box saying, "No expiration date provided."

You must also enter the document number for any driver's license or state-issued ID card. The document number must be letters, numbers, asterisks, or dashes and must be between 1 and 17 characters.

Employees cannot present an expired document.

Are you entering a Driver's License or a State Issued ID Card?

Driver's License

State Issued ID Card

State

Select an option... ▼

Expiration Date

MM / DD / YYYY

If the document has an expiration date, you MUST enter that expiration date here.

No expiration date provided.

Document Number