

E-Verify Mobile? What Do You Think?

Have you accessed E-Verify on your mobile device? Would you like to? Please visit E-Verify Listens today and share your ideas to improve the E-Verify mobile access experience.

E-Verify Adds Updated Web Content

On October 30th, with the launch of the new USCIS website, E-Verify unveiled updated web content that responds to customer feedback and external web audits. Visit the website and find shortened URLs, streamlined navigation, and more. Stay tuned for more updates!

New E-Verify Monitoring and Compliance Webpage

A new page has been added to the E-Verify website to explain the role of E-Verify Monitoring and Compliance. Visit the page to learn how E-Verify gives guidance to users, identifies and deters possible discriminatory practices, conducts site visits and more.

Correcting Immigration Records Fact Sheet

E-Verify recently posted a new “How to Correct Your Immigration Records After Resolving a DHS Tentative Nonconfirmation” webpage which explains how employees can correct their immigration records and prevent future TNCs.

Both Posters Now Need Less Ink

Thanks to your feedback on E-Verify Listens, the E-Verify Participation posters have also been revised to use less ink. The same revision to the Right to Work posters was announced in the last issue of this newsletter. Tell us more of your great ideas on E-Verify Listens.

Combatting SSN Fraud

On November 18, USCIS announced a program enhancement that will help identify and deter fraudulent use of Social Security numbers (SSNs) in E-Verify. See the News Release for more.

You're Invited to Discuss New E-Verify MOUs

Two teleconferences will be held to discuss the upcoming release of new and revised Memorandums of Understanding \(MOUs\). December 11, 2013 at 2:30 EST for general E-Verify Users; December 12, 2013 at 2:30 EST for web service participants. Click here for more details, including a preview of the new MOUs and a new fact sheet.

Display the E-Verify Logo

In just a few easy steps you can post the official E-Verify logo on your website. Requesting use of our trademarked logo is easy. Simply fill out and return the E-Verify Trademark Licensing Agreement online or via fax.

Form I-9 Tip

When an existing employee's employment authorization documentation expires the employer must reverify a List A or List C document. It's a good practice to remind employees 90 days in advance that they must present a valid document showing they are still authorized to work. Find more information about reverification on pages 12 and 13 of the M-274 Handbook for Employers and on I-9 Central.

Reminder: Employers should not reverify U.S. Citizens or noncitizen nationals or lawful permanent residents (LPRs) who presented a Permanent Resident Card (Form I-551) or List B documents.

Review the Latest MOUs in a Free Webinar

In December, E-Verify experts will review the updates to E-Verify and the E-Verify Memorandum of Understanding during Existing User webinars. See the December schedule.

Visit www.DHS.gov/E-Verify

Subscribe to E-Verify Connection. See our webinar schedule.

Share ideas at www.E-VerifyListens.ideascale.com

Employee Hotline: 1-888-897-7781 Employer Queries: 1-888-464-4218

Self Check

#EVerify