

What's Hot in E-Verify

E-Verify Can Now Verify Driver's Licenses

E-Verify launched Records and Information for Department of Motor Vehicles for E-Verify (RIDE) in June. RIDE strengthens the integrity of E-Verify by adding driver's license verification. Mississippi is the first state to partner with DHS for the RIDE program and, so far, more than 25,000 driver's licenses have been validated. Learn more at <http://www.dhs.gov/E-Verify> or on the USCIS Press Room.

More E-Verify Enhancements Go Live

The latest E-Verify enhancements feature many customer focused improvements. For example, E-Verify now includes help text items that provide ready answers to user questions. There is also a new streamlined enrollment and user registration process. For more information about E-Verify's June release of enhancements, visit www.dhs.gov/E-Verify.

Subscribe to I-9 Central

I-9 Central, the new online one-stop source for information and instruction on the use for Form I-9, is frequently updated with items important for employment eligibility verification. To get updates sent to your inbox, subscribe on the I-9 Central website. You can also subscribe to receive updates on E-Verify and Self Check when you visit those web pages.

Form I-9 Handbook for Employers Updated

Check out the recently updated M-274, Handbook for Employers (Rev. 06/01/11) online. You will find more guidance on entering names, more document examples, plus other new information.

Federal Contractor?

A new flyer that neatly summarizes what you need to know about the Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) E-Verify clause is on the E-Verify website. Please see it here and pass it on.

Free E-Verify Webinars Can be Customized

USCIS offers free live webinars on Form I-9, E-Verify, Federal Contractor E-Verify, and Self Check throughout each month. USCIS also partners with organizations to deliver customized webinars to their members and affiliates. Employee rights is a popular topic. Write to E-VerifyOutreach@dhs.gov for more information. For the regular schedule of free webinars, visit <http://go.usa.gov/it1>.

Self Check Branded

Self Check has recently been branded with its own new trademarked logo. Self Check is a free online service of E-Verify that allows individuals to check on their own employment eligibility. Learn more at www.USCIS.gov/everifyselfcheck and try it for yourself.
