NEW E-VERIFY JOB AIDS

The E-Verify system has recently added and released three new job aids to support case processing changes. The changes covered include: Create and Submit a Case, Process and Refer a Tentative Nonconfirmation (TNC) and Company Search.

TEMPORARY PROTECTED STATUS FOR YEMEN AND HONDURAS

On July 5, 2018, Secretary Nielsen announced her decision to extend the Temporary Protected Status (TPS) designation for Yemen for a period of 18 months, through March 3, 2020.

The TPS designation for Honduras will terminate on Jan. 5, 2020, and Employment Authorization Documents (EADs) are automatically extended through Jan. 1, 2019. For employer guidance, visit the I-9 Central TPS and Deferred Enforced Departure webpage.

SMALL BUSINESSES AND E-VERIFY

E-Verify helps all businesses during the hiring process. E-Verify usage statistics show that small businesses make up 95 percent of all employers enrolled in E-Verify. Learn more about how it can benefit your small business at www.E-Verify.gov, and share your experience on E-Verify Listens.

E-VERIFY ENHANCEMENTS

Last April, we enhanced the E-Verify system to improve our user’s overall experience. In June 2018, USCIS added further updates and enhancements to the modernized E-Verify system to improve user experience, reduce errors, and increase the speed and accuracy of the employment eligibility verification process. You may find these added enhancements under the E-Verify Enhancements June 2018 webpage. Log in or enroll to experience the new E-Verify today.

DISPLAY THE E-VERIFY LOGO ON YOUR WEBSITE

There is an easy way to let everyone know that you are using E-Verify to help maintain a legal workforce: request authorization to post the trademarked E-Verify logo on your website and printed materials. Visit the Trademark and Logo Usage Guidelines webpage for more information.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS:

Form I-9 Q&A: What should I do if an employee presents a Social Security card marked “NOT VALID FOR EMPLOYMENT,” but states that he or she is now authorized to work?

Such Social Security cards are not acceptable documents for Form I-9. You should ask the employee to provide another document to establish his or her employment authorization.

E-Verify Q&A: Where can I find instructions on how to add new users or delete existing users?

The E-Verify User Manual provides instructions to program administrators to add or delete users. The E-Verify User Manual for Corporate Administrators also has instructions for those who need to add or delete users.

E-Verify Q&A: As an E-Verify program administrator, how do I reset a user password on our account?

To reset a user password, follow the steps outlined in Reset User Passwords – Process Overview.
