Why You Received This Notice

You used Self Check through myE-Verify to confirm your work eligibility in the United States. myE-Verify Self Check compares the information you provided to official government records. The information you entered into myE-Verify Self Check does not match records available to the Social Security Administration (SSA), resulting in a mismatch, also called a Tentative Nonconfirmation.

Reason for Your Mismatch

<<System generated reason>>

Mismatch Date:

myE-Verify Case Number:

This does not necessarily mean that you are not authorized to work in the United States. There are many possible reasons why myE-Verify Self Check could not match your information to available records, listed at <http://www.E-Verify.gov/mismatch>.

Take Action to Resolve the Mismatch

Review your information to make sure it was entered correctly.

Last Name:

Social Security Number:

First Name:

Document Number:

Month and Year of Birth:

A-Number or USCIS Number:

You have 8 federal government working days to visit an SSA field office from the date you chose to take action on your case. The Referral Date Confirmation letter will tell you the date by which you must visit SSA.

Resolve Your Mismatch by Contacting SSA

If you live near an SSA Card Center, you must visit the SSA Card Center to update your information.

- Determine SSA Card Center or SSA office availability at <https://www.ssa.gov/locator/> OR
- Call SSA at 800-772-1213 (TTY: 800-325-0778). If you need help in another language, you may ask for an interpreter.

Have this notice available when you visit SSA. Tell them you have a myE-Verify Self Check issue. SSA can update your record with proof that a change is needed. You will need to provide original documents, not photocopies.

Below are examples of documents you may need:

- Proof of your age: a birth certificate or passport
- Proof of your identity: a driver's license or passport
- Proof of a legal name change: a marriage certificate, if your current name is not on your SSN card; and
- Proof of U.S. citizenship or a work-authorized status:
 - If you are a U.S. citizen: a Naturalization Certificate, U.S. birth certificate or passport; or
 - If you are not a U.S. citizen: a Permanent Resident Card (Form I-551, also known as a Green Card), Employment Authorization Document (Form I-766), or Arrival-Departure Record (Form I-94) showing work authorized status.
